DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B.
Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.
The predominant products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN

Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

DELAND, FLA.

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world better, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridge-wood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with African draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptomeria forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's complex where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

PICTURESQUE PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Hal-fax River, and is connected with the peninsula opposite
by a bridge.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes.
A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing.

A short distance
west of Port Orange are the remains of the old Dunlawton
sugar mill, a place that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. One time
all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast indigo and sugar cane plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those early days but has been in disuse for forty or fifty years.

A very interesting drive from Daytona to the beach is by the approach of the Port Orange road, across the bridge, and then passing through the principal street of Port Orange to the remains of the old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland.

TEN YEARS AGO.

FROM THE GAZETTE-NEWS OF JANUARY 26, 1901.

L. H. Thompson, a former Daytona boy, has returned from Cuba, where he has been in the Government service.

Smith Bros. have sold a lot on Halifax avenue to John Foster, of Illinois, who will erect a residence to be used as a winter home.

Mrs. I. M. Mabbette will fill the position of teacher in the Seabreeze public schools, made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Richardson.

The county commissioners have had the bridge repaired on the Ormond road and now have a force of men at work on the road between here and DeLand.

James Carnell, of Ormond, was elected grand master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Florida at the annual meeting held in Jacksonville last week. Mr. Carnell succeeds Silas B. Wright, of DeLand, who has served in that capacity for the past three years.

AN INSOLENT FOP.

Beau Brummel's Impertinence and a Brewer's Tart Retort.

Beau Brummel, the famous English fop, was as notorious for his insolence as for his fine feathers. At the Pavilion, at Brighton, he ordered the footman to empty his snuffbox into the fire because a bishop had taken a pinch unasked. A man whom he had met at dinner offered him a lift in his carriage to Lady Jersey's ball. "Thank you exceedingly," said the beau. "but how are you to go? You would not like to get up behind, and I cannot be seen in the same carriage with you." He made no secret of his humble birth and when asked about his parents declared that "the poor old creatures both cut their throats years ago eating peas with a knife."

Once at least Brummel met his match. He was playing hazard at Brooks', when a well known alderman, a brewer, was one of the party. "Come, Mashrub," said Brummel, who was the caster, "what's your bet?" "Twenty-five guineas," was the reply. "Well, then, have at the mayor's pony," said Brummel, who proceeded to cast and by a run of luck won the stake twelve times in succession. Pocketing the money, he thanked the brewer and promised that in future he would drink no one's porter but his. "I wish, sir," replied the brewer, "that every other blackguard in London would tell me the same."

Charles L. Smith has sold his house at Seabreeze to R. W. Whinfield, of Fon du Lac, Wis.

A lantern which Louis Sewell, night watchman at the plant of the Daytona Novelty works, was carrying Sunday night exploded and his face was quite badly burned.

We trust our readers will overlook our somewhat "bottled" appearance this week, but we are installing our new type, which will make the Gazette-News one of the most modern newspapers, typographically, published in the State of Florida.

The safe in the store of James Francis, at Ormond, was robbed of $50 Tuesday and later Constable Priest arrested two negro boys, Matthew Sawyer and Kirby Grisby. The boys took the officer to the place where the money had been hidden and all but $9 of the amount was recovered. The boys were held to the criminal court for trial.

Paternalism in Groceries. Paternalism with a vengeance is practiced in certain New York groceries.

"Ma wants two pounds of sugar," said a child to a patriarch in the trade. He consulted a calendar on the wall. "I guess you'd better take only a pound today," he said, "and go kind of slow on that. The week is only half gone, but you have already eaten up three-fourths of your allowance. Tell your mother so."

The child promised to deliver the report on Monday in depression.

"That is the only way on earth to keep these people from running into debt," said the grocer. "The system is common in this neighborhood. I do it at the customers' request. Every pay day women with spendthrift husbands and an extravagant disposition of their own deposit enough money with the grocer and butcher to see the family through the week. They instruct us to let no one overdraw the amount, and except in cases where extra food is actually needed we stick to our end of the bargain."—New York Times.

Considerate.

Mrs. Benham—You look mad. Benham—I am mad. A man called me a born fool today. Mrs. Benham—You ought not to get mad about it. I think it was very considerate in him to blame it on your ancestors.—Brooklyn Life.

The American Baby. The American baby has a fine, strong ancestry. The young men of England who were impatient of religious restraint and of physical oppression; the young men of Germany touched with the dream of democracy; the pick of northern Europe, the strong, the fair, the self-reliant, the conscientious English at bottom, but with a dash of the best blood of other races—this is the American baby, and no king and no lord ever had a better heritage. Take it as it goes, in Massachusetts, in Ohio, in Michigan, in Washington, in California, the average American baby has in its veins more of the blood of the Plantagenets than any king now living has. It was his fortune to have come from the daughter lines and the lines of the younger sons, not from the elder son, whom British custom has marked for the aristocrat.—David Starr Jordan.

John Drew tells of a young man, formerly an actor, who married a widow, by whom he was in many ways reformed. Mr. Drew offered him a cigar one day, which he declined, saying, "My wife gave up her weeds for me, and I have given up mine for her."—North Carolina Star.

Fifty Years Ago Today. Jan. 27.

A Springfield (Ill.) dispatch announced that President Elect Lincoln would leave that city Feb. 11 and proceed to Washington by way of Cincinnati, Buffalo, Albany, Harrisburg and Baltimore, avoiding New York. South Carolina adopted the palmetto flag as a state emblem.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

The ministry of Lord Salisbury was defeated in the British parliament by a majority of seventy-nine, a signal for Premier Salisbury to retire. The issue turned on the Irish land question.

NEW SMYRNA, FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and overarched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

HEAVY PENALTY FOR TAKING FRUIT OR BLOOM OF TREES.

LAW PROVIDES A FINE AND IMPRISONMENT FOR TAKING FRUIT OR BLOOM FROM ORANGE TREES.

James N. Gamble, who owns a handsome winter home at Daytona Beach, writes from Cincinnati, Ohio, that he is reliably informed that the oranges are rapidly disappearing from the trees on his place, which is located at the east end of the South bridge, parties walking in and helping themselves.

This is reprehensible conduct on the part of the persons concerned, even if done through thoughtlessness by visitors in the city, and probably but few of them are aware that a heavy penalty attaches to trespass of this character, the maximum being a fine of $50 and imprisonment for three months for carrying away the fruit or parts of the trees, while the penalty for malicious destruction of orange trees is still heavier. Many persons ordinarily considered honest do not hesitate to enter private property and help themselves to fruit or flowers, forgetting in their egotism that a continual repetition of the same by others of like mind and easy conscience leads to the destruction of much property and consequent loss to the owner.

F. A. MANN AGAIN IN THE EDITORIAL CHAIR.

F. A. Mann, who founded both the Gazette and Journal of this city is again in editorial harness, this time in Lompoc, Santa Barbara county, California. Mr. Mann went to Lompoc from this place last spring to assist his son, Horace, who was in ill health, in the editorial work on the Lompoc Record, an old established weekly paper, and since the death of his son, which occurred recently, Mr. Mann has assumed the editorial mantle, in the successful conduct of which he has the good wishes of many old friends in this city and vicinity. Mrs. Mann is with him in California.

PREACHING AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Rev. J. H. Gilliland, of Bloomington, Ill., will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The subject will be "A Rational View of Christianity." Mr. Gilliland has been a pastor in Bloomington for nearly 23 years and is one of the best known preachers in the state of Illinois. You are most cordially invited to bring your friends and attend this service.

MARLBOROUGH'S NOTE.

A Scrap of Paper Treasured by the Great Duke's Heirs.

A scrap of paper that carries one back to the very atmosphere of a great decisive battle in the world's history is among the historical treasures of Blenheim House. On the paper are a dozen lines scribbled in pencil. They were written by the Duke of Marlborough at the close of the fierce struggle at Blenheim.

The tumult of battle was rolling westward, where French and Bavarians were in disorderly retreat, with Marlborough's cavalry riding fiercely in their rear. The slopes of the hill and the marshy plain were strewn with 30,000 killed and wounded.

But Marlborough, with the excitement of the great fight yet strong within him, pulled up his horse on one of the little rustic bridges across the Schwanbach and scribbled these dozen lines to his wife in London to tell her of the great event.

Apparently the duke borrowed the scrap of paper from some member of his staff, for on the back of it are the faded items of a tavern bill. He used the parapet of the bridge for a writing desk. He had been seventeen hours in the saddle, most of that time riding in the very heart of one of the greatest battles in all history, yet the letters are firm in shape, a curious testimony to that serenely unshakable temperament that was Marlborough's most striking characteristic. — New York Herald.

Cutting Up Old Furs.
There is a knack of cutting up old furs with which all women are not familiar. The pelt should be turned wrong side up and the skin slowly and carefully cut with a sharp penknife, the blade penetrating the skin only and not touching the long hairs. Cutting fur with scissors destroys the beauty of the hair and wastes much of the pelt that might be saved by the penknife process.

Rasped.
"Do you shave yourself very close?" said the barber.
"Not very," said the victim. "I usually leave enough skin to fasten the court plaster on, but of course you didn't know that before you began." — Exchange.

Can You Sew

all day without fatigue? Foolish question, isn't it? No it's not, for it means, do you or do you not use a Westinghouse Sewing Machine Motor?

With it, you cannot only sew all day without fatigue, but you can sew a great deal more than you can by pedaling. What do you suppose the absence of fatigue costs in the current taken by the motor? Only a half a cent an hour.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rival.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

THE ENGAGEMENT RING.

Advice the Jeweler Gave the Young Man Who Was Investing.

"Some of these jewelers are an accommodating lot," remarked the young man in the light suit. "I went in the other day to buy a diamond ring. 'For a lady?' the clerk asked me. 'An engagement ring?' he asked me further.

"Yes," I told him, getting a little bit peeved, 'but I don't see what business it is of yours what I intend to do with the ring after I've paid for it out of my own private funds.'

"Don't be offended," says the clerk in a conciliatory tone. "I was just going to suggest that if it was simply a present, with no engagement going with it, you go in for size rather than for quality, and when the girl comes in to inquire about its value we'll be $50 or $75 worth for you. But if it's an engagement ring I would advise you to get the best quality you can find, even if it does mean a smaller stone. Just as a matter of sentiment you'll want to know that it is right, and then if you ever get in hard luck you can pawn the good ring for two-thirds of its value."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Toad's Tongue.
The skillful manner in which a pet toad used its wonderfully formed tongue entitled it to be ranked as an expert. For one thing, it showed wonderful skill in judging distances. The tongue was never darted out until the insect came within a certain range. The accuracy of the creature's aim was another matter for surprise. The insects were generally in motion when the tongue was darted out against them, but the arrow never failed to hit. The rapidity with which the tongue was shot forth excited much wonder. The operation is a complete one. The tongue is doubled or folded, up when in the mouth. Therefore a twofold action is required, an uncoiling of the weapon and then the darting of it forth. The withdrawing of the tongue with the captured insect on the tip was not less remarkable. Notwithstanding the rapid motion, the fineness of the tongue tip and the struggles of the prey the victim was never dropped.—Exchange.

Graves in China.
There are various kinds of graves in China. The graves are dug generally from twelve feet to thirteen feet below the ground, while, according to an old custom, the mounds of the graves of emperors were thirty feet in height, those of territorial lords fifteen feet and those of barons without territories and of lord stewards eight feet, while for inferior officials and common people mounds only four feet in height were erected. Pines were planted on the tombs of emperors, a species of oak on those of territorial lords, a species of willow on those of barons and lord stewards and elm trees on those of inferior officials. Although there are no territorial lords and lord stewards now in China, men of high rank still have their tombs constructed in accordance with this old custom.

He Loved His Enemies.
James MacNeill Whistler looked upon life as upon a kind of warfare and was never so happy as when he was quarreling with somebody. He is quoted as having said when asked if he did not have many friends: "Yes, I have many friends, and I am grateful to them, but those whom most I love are my enemies, not in a Biblical sense. Oh, no, but because they keep one always busy, always up to the mark, either fighting them or proving them idiots."

Then He Sulked.
"Mrs. Guschley remarked to me that it must be pleasant to be married to a clever man," said Proudley's wife. "And what did you say?" queried Proudley. "I told her, of course, that I didn't know; that I had only been married once."

Suffering becomes beautiful when one bears great calamities with cheerfulness, not through insensibility, but through greatness of mind.—Aristotle

The Point of View.
The world in which a man lives shapes itself chiefly by the way in which he looks at it, and so it proves different to different men. To one it is barren, dull and superficial; to another, rich, interesting and full of meaning. On hearing of the interesting events which have happened in the course of a man's experience many people will wish that similar things had happened in their lives, too, completely forgetting that they should be envious rather of the mental aptitude which lent these events the significance they possess when he describes them. To a man of genius they were interesting adventures, but to the dull perceptions of an ordinary individual they would have been stale, everyday occurrences.—Schopenhauer.

A Tinge of Suspicion.
"That speaker always starts off," said Farmer Cornstossel, "by telling what the country needs." "Naturally and properly." "I s'pose so. Only I notice that when a man goes out of his way to tell me what I need it's always something in his particular line of goods."

His Sole Dread.
Hammond—Don't you dread the silent watches of the night? Martin—No; it's the cuckoo clocks that give me away.—Harper's Bazar.

Seen in a Dream.

Mr. Hilprecht, professor of Assyriology in the University of Pennsylvania in 1893, when puzzling over sketches of objects excavated at Babylon, learned in a dream the solution to the difficulty that confronted him. Two drawings represented fragments of agate inscribed with characters. They were supposed to be bits of finger rings and, being apparently of different colors, were not closely associated together by the professor. But in a dream he saw an Assyrian priest, who told him how the priests of the Temple of Bel, having received a votive cylinder of agate from their king, were ordered to make earrings for their god. They made three by cutting up the cylinder, and the professor would find by fitting the fragments together that these were two of them. He did this and found that they gave a continuous description.

Helping Him Out.
For years Squire Latham, of whom many amusing stories are told, was a resident of Bridgewater, Mass., and it was while he was living there that the incident occurred which is related below. It illustrates his habitual coolness and whimsical temper.

He was awakened one night by his wife, who told him she thought there were burglars in the house. The squire put on his dressing gown and went downstairs. In the back hall he found a rough looking man trying to open a door that led into the back yard.

The burglar had unlocked the door and was pulling it with all his might. "It doesn't open that way, you idiot!" shouted the squire, taking in the man's predicament instantly. "It slides back!"

Not a Disease.
"I can't understand my husband, doctor. I am afraid there is something terrible the matter with him." "What are his symptoms?" "Well, I often talk to him for half an hour at a time, and when I get through he hasn't the least idea what I've been saying." "Don't worry any more about your husband. I wish I had his gift."

All Depends.
"I don't like to listen to hard luck stories. Do you?" "That depends on whether they are reminiscences or the preliminaries to a touch."—Washington Herald.

Warned.
"Too many cooks spoil the broth," quoted the wise guy. "Yes, just as too many appetizers spoil the appetite," agreed the simple mug.—Philadelphia Record.

Will It Come to This?
"She's very domestic in her tastes, isn't she?" "Decidedly. They say she really enjoys her husband's cooking."—Life.

ORMOND-ON-THE-HALIFAX

ORMOND is 5 miles north of Daytona, located on the west bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Daytona Beach. Many fine homes are maintained on either side of the river, most of them surrounded by subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides variety orange and other citrus fruit trees.

Ormond has many attractions—excellent automobilizing, good fishing, safe boating, and many pleasant drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, the Trotton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax, and the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

Besides the broad, smooth beach there are many drives for carriages and automobiles around Ormond—drives to and through groves of golden oranges; drives through tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of the most interesting of these plantations is at the headquarters of the Halifax and known as Moundgrove. It is one of the finest orange groves on the East Coast of Florida and is amid very pretty surroundings.

Moundgrove is on the Daytona-Saint Augustine road.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Roit. W. Taylor, sister of Mrs. E. D. Langworthy, arrived Friday from Cleveland, Ohio, and will spend the remainder of the season with Mr. and Mrs. Langworthy at their Ocean boulevard residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Binghamton, N. Y., through the agency of C. F. Burgman have leased and are now occupying Mrs. Sarah R. McGinnell's handsome winter residence on the Halifax. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have been guests at the Clarendon for some time and are old friends of Seabreeze, having spent a number of seasons in City Beautiful.

George Carew, who with his family, are guests at the Clarendon, Tuesday rented Mrs. M. J. Murphy's pretty home, Ideal Cottage, of C. F. Burgman, and will take possession tomorrow.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Douglas, Mrs. Ellen Douglas, Mrs. C. A. Page and children of Guilford, Me., who were stopping at the Princess Isena, have leased the Rhode Island cottage on Atlantic avenue and are pleasantly domiciled therein for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Woodward are looking forward to the completion of their handsome new beach bungalow within a couple of weeks. A glance over the premises, with its up-to-date garage, winding cement walks, marled and graded grounds, through which the green sod is beginning to show, and an examination of the interior of the new home is very convincing of its excellence and superiority in convenience of arrangement and beauty of plan. There are five rooms on the first floor. The interior finish is beaver board instead of lath and plaster, which is painted and partitioned with narrow strips of wood walnut stained. The large living room, which is beamed and open to the ceiling, has a generous fireplace, window seat and bookcases on each side. It is very suggestive of home comforts. The den, especially for Mr. Woodward's delectation, is unusually attractive, as are also the dining room and two dainty bedrooms with bath between. All rooms are done in old rose, except the two bedrooms which are in robin's egg blue. A big cellar and furnace for heating, an artesian well and electric engine for forcing water, completes the details of a modern winter home in Seabreeze.

George H. Wells, who owns a lot just north of Mr. Woodward's property, is considering plans and specifications for building a beach cottage. Also it is understood that Mr. Smithers is making arrangements to erect a winter residence on his lot on the corner of University boulevard and Grandview avenue. These winter homes if built will be substantial improvements to North Seabreeze, and give a neat boost to property in this direction.

Mr. and Mrs. John Uebelhoefer entertained at a dinner and card party Monday evening at the Clarendon. The decorations were American Beauty roses, break-o-the-day pinks and ferns. Six tables were set in the beautiful private dining room of the Clarendon, and the elaborate dinner was served at 7:30. Toasts were given by Mrs. Farrell and Messrs. Rogers, Uebelhoefer, Gamble and Dr. Esch. After dinner bridge whist and 500 were enjoyed. The tables, six in all, four of bridge whist and two of 500, were set in the ball room. The highest scores in bridge were made by Mrs. Walter J. Gamble and George Wells, and on 500 the highest scores were made by Mrs. McGregor and Mr. Cordis. Four handsome prizes were awarded the four scoring highest. Flowers were awarded Mrs. Erreger and Mr. Woodward, the consolation winners. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Codis and Mrs. T. Edward Cordis, Dr. and Mrs. Esch, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Fogg, Mrs. E. A. Freeman, Mesdames McGregor and Putnam.

The San Souci club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Uebelhoefer. The program was arranged by Mrs. E. A. Freeman. It was Dickens' day. Roll call was responded to by quotations from the author, Mrs. Freeman. Bret Hart on Dickens in camp. Miss Blakelee gave synopsis of Pickwick Papers, Old Curiosity Shop and David Copperfield. Fried oysters, hot rolls, salads and coffee were served at the social hour.

Mrs. H. K. Carver, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Ellis, at her home on Peninsula drive, departed today on her return to her Montana home.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sherman are now cosily installed in their new cottage on Grandview avenue. Mr. Sherman has two houses in Daytona Beach, both of which are occupied, and he says he was obliged in self-defense to build quarters for himself and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Opfer and two grandsons, of Loraine, Ohio, were among Tuesday's arrivals. They are domiciled with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Harpster on Ocean boulevard.

Artist Harry Fluhart, whose handsome paintings in the Clarendon lobby have been so much admired, has opened his studio on Grandview avenue.

A large force of workmen have been engaged this week in putting the golf links in first-class order. Golfing is quite popular with the Clarendon guests.

Miss Schermerhorn and friend, Miss Nelson, of Michigan, are pleasantly located at the Burgman home on Ocean boulevard.

William Holdmeyer, son and daughter, Harry and Miss Florence, of Elyria, Ohio, have taken housekeeping rooms at the Harpster home.

A party of Seabreeze young ladies enjoyed a matinee party at the New Daytona theater Saturday afternoon.

The three-piece orchestra, led by Harry Brigham, added greatly to the enjoyment of the services at the Seabreeze Congregational church Sunday morning.

The Ladies' Home Circle met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Coburn Wednesday afternoon. It was decided at the business meeting to hold the bazaar in the Knowlton block.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 26.—The brisk sales of peninsula property which have held during the past month still continues, and building interests were never brighter.

Since last week's report, the following properties have changed hands: Harry Horn has purchased of C. L. Horn a lot on Orange avenue extending through to Palmtoe avenue, and this week is clearing it to build; Mrs. Cora Powell has purchased of C. L. Horn an Orange avenue between the coquina cottage and Smith's block. It is Mrs. Powell's intention to build in the near future, possibly this spring. C. L. Horn has bought of E. G. Kittredge, lot 4, block 19, which fronts 100 feet on Orange avenue and Palmtoe, and is across from El Nido cottage on Orange avenue.

E. A. Branch, real estate dealer, has sold the following properties within the last two weeks: To L. M. Phillips, the Scheid cottage on Grandview avenue, which Mr. Phillips and family were occupying for the winter; a lot belonging to John G. Brown, located on Coates street and Grandview avenue to C. Phillips; also a lot on Grandview avenue, Seabreeze, belonging to Mrs. E. Brush-Shoemaker, to O. R. Nicholson and his brother, H. A. Nicholson.

Mrs. Anna Gibson and Mrs. Jas. Wilcox arrived yesterday and have taken housekeeping apartments with Mrs. Katherine Bunch on Grandview avenue, Seabreeze.

Miss Maud Strocher entertained the Tofigny club Tuesday night. Several visitors were present and the evening was pleasantly spent.

Roy Huffman was over from Gainesville from Saturday until Monday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

C. A. Kurfess last week received a present of a fox, a coon and a wild cat. The fox escaped in the delivery, but the other two animals afford much enjoyment to the tourists who surge up and down Seabreeze avenue, and at nearly any hour of the day a crowd may be seen gathered around the cage, which Mr. Kurfess has erected to the rear of his cottage.

Mrs. Merryman and daughter, of Marietta, Ohio, are among the week's arrivals and they have apartments for the season with Mrs. Lena Carter, on Coates street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Littleton, of Kirklin, Ind., Howard Vardeman, of Atlanta, Ga., and J. Orin Benjamin, of Providence, R. I., are among the numerous arrivals at the White House.

Mrs. M. V. Young last Wednesday entertained a party of tourist friends in honor of Mrs. Geo. A. Parker, of Frankfurt, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are comfortably domiciled for the season at the Branch house on Seabreeze avenue.

William Hambrick, who is spending the winter on Seabreeze avenue, was run down by a bicyclist while attempting to cross the street and is still too crippled to indulge in his favorite pastime—fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Hambrick are among the regular visitors of a large Kentucky contingent who spend their winters at Daytona Beach.

C. H. DeGrafie and daughter, Mrs. E. A. DeGrafie, of Michigan, have taken housekeeping apartments with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Horn on Peninsula drive.

William Ronald will entertain Friday evening at 8:00 at his home on the Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beardsley have set up housekeeping in their new cottage on Mitchell avenue. They are very snug in their new quarters, where all their surroundings are fresh, dainty and convenient.

Mr. Hambrick's sister, Mrs. B. D. Best, and her husband, are expected here next week from Cincinnati, to visit their relatives for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hunt, of Georgetown, who stopped here for a brief visit with friends, have continued their journey to Tampa.

The first entertainment of the Tourists' club this season took place last Friday, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harroun. Sixty-two registered. A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Harroun for opening her pleasant home to the tourists.

Messrs. Edwards and Acres have been making tests of a new glider for their flying machine this week. They expect to install the engine sometime soon.

Mrs. Young, Miss Virginia Young, Miss DeCamp, and the Misses Smith, Clifton Young and Carl Sparks had another one of their pleasant camping expeditions, leaving Saturday afternoon for Tomoka woods and returning Tuesday night. They found game abundant and had planned a bear hunt for Tuesday, but the rains descended and the floods came, and they boarded their boat and tacked for home.

DEATH OF MRS. HENRIETTA DIANNA ZIMMERMAN.

Mrs. Henrietta Dianna Zimmerman died quite suddenly at Ormond Tuesday night at six o'clock of heart failure. Funeral services were held at the residence at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. Huntington. The interment was made at the Ormond cemetery.

The deceased was born May 30, 1841, at Ransomville, N. Y., where she lived until shortly after her marriage to Matthias Zimmerman, September, 1865. Most of Mrs. Zimmerman's life was spent in North Dakota, although she and her husband resided for a time in Maryland and in Pennsylvania. Of the four children born of the marriage only one survives the mother, Mrs. Andrew Sinclair of Seabreeze.

Mrs. Zimmerman came with her husband to this vicinity in 1907 and purchased a home and orange grove a few miles north of Ormond, where they have since resided.

Mrs. Zimmermans death was wholly unexpected and was a great shock to her family and numerous friends. She was apparently in usual health up to a few minutes before her death. She had dropped down for a few minutes' rest on a couch in the room with her husband and little granddaughter, Esther Sinclair, with whom she was playing, when the attack seized her. She called to Mr. Zimmerman, and before he had time to call help the gentle spirit had flown from its mortal home.

Mrs. Zimmerman is survived by two brothers in North Dakota, and a sister, Mrs. Mullett, at Seabreeze, besides her husband and daughter mentioned.

The deceased was a woman with all the endearing qualities of sweet womanliness, which constitutes everything as wife, mother, sister, friend. The world was better for her coming, and she will be sadly missed from her circle of relatives and friends.

Fastidious Stephen Girard.
The people Stephen Girard liked best were the Quakers. He had sympathy with their disdain of forms, their shrewd business habits and their integrity.

In his own dress he was as neat and particular as they were and did not look unlike them. His plain coats were made of the best broadcloth, and his underwear of silk was imported from China. He kept a pair of shoes for each day of the week, and his nieces hemmed his square linen cravats by the dozen.—From "A Sylvan City."

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, Jan. 26.—In coming out of the M. E. church Sunday Mrs. Davis undertook to close the door when the knob came off and she fell to the ground, dislocating her hip. She was carried across the street to her home and Dr. DuBois called. At present she is resting easier.

Mrs. J. C. Nokes, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived a few days ago and is pleasantly located at the Illinois House.

Lourence McDonald's eldest boy was playing on the school grounds one day last week when he fell and broke his leg. He is getting along very well under the circumstances.

Mr. Hopkins' bungalow is progressing very well and will be quite an addition to Herbert avenue.

While Jessie Long's little girl was climbing over a pile of fence posts one day recently one of the posts fell on her breaking her leg. She is progressing favorably.

S. F. Cummings, the landlord of the Port Orange House, invited the tourists who hail from the state of Maine to a new England dinner Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. and Mrs. Lower, of Belfast; Mr. and Mrs. Weston and Frank A. Roberts, of Anson; Mr. and Mrs. Jack, of Richmond, and Mrs. Eaton, of Wilton.

Born, last week, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Johnson, a little daughter.

Tuesday Dr. and Mrs. Herrick arrived from Hudson, Ohio, to visit the latter's aunt, Mrs. Milburn, and cousin, Mrs. D. E. Lyon.

Rolling Cigars.
It is common to hear men complain of poorly made cigars, but it is not always because a cigar is indifferently or badly made that the wrapper curls up and comes off. Much oftener this comes from the cigar having been rolled by a maker's left hand and later smoked from the hand of a right handed man. All cigar makers must use both hands equally well, and economy both in time and material is the prevailing rule in tobacco factories. When a piece of tobacco is cut for the wrapper it is cut on the bias and rolled from left to right on the filler, and at the same time and by the other hand the remaining pieces are used, being necessarily rolled in the opposite way. For this reason the man who holds a cigar in his right hand, which always gives a few twists during the course of a smoke, rubs the wrapper the wrong way, and easily enough it becomes loosened.—Chicago Tribune.

Magna Charta and the Bill of Rights.
Historically speaking, there is a big difference between the Magna Charta and the bill of rights. The first was obtained by the barons from King John at Runnymede in June, 1215, the other by the lords and commons from the Prince and Princess of Orange in 1688-89.

Magna Charta will ever remain the greatest landmark in the constitutional history of England, but next to the great charter wrung from John by the barons must stand the bill of rights that was so graciously acceded to by King William.—New York American.

The Olfactory Test.
It may appear a whimsical theory that the successful grocery store can be detected by its odors, and yet there is this much truth in it—namely, that the grocery store which greets the nostrils with a certain glorious combination of odors of coffee, tea and spices is almost always a paying investment.—Ideal Grocer.

Secrets of Comfort.
Though sometimes small evils, like invisible insects, inflict pain and a single hair may stop a vast machine, yet the chief secret of comfort lies in not suffering trifles to vex one and in prudently cultivating an undergrowth of small pleasures, since very few great ones, alas, are let on long leases.

The Practical Man.
Our idea of a practical man is one who would rather have a ten cent cigar given to him than a five cent named for him.—Dallas News.

Truth is of no value unless it is exemplified in conduct.

PASSION PLAY PICTURES

AT THE THEATRE TONIGHT.

The attraction at the Daytona Theater this evening will be the Passion Play pictures, consisting of beautifully hand-tinted pictures of the original play. The pictures will be explained with a lecture by James S. Clark and Daytona theater patrons are assured a very enjoyable entertainment.

NOTES OF INTEREST FROM DAYTONA PUBLIC LIBRARY.

During the remainder of the season the library will be open from 2:30 to 5:30 daily. A fee of $1 a year or fifty cents for three months is charged for taking books from the library.

Many tourists are patrons of the library, and there is a constant demand for new books. If every family in Daytona would send in a year's subscription it would be a great help financially.

His Other Name.

"When Tom Ochiltree was in the zenith of his fame as an exaggerator and prevaricator," said an old capitol employee, "he came to me one morning and said, 'Uncle Jimmy, I suppose you have heard of the honor done me in New York?'"

"I told him I had heard nothing of it, and he said:

"Why, they are establishing a new publication over there and have honored me by giving it my name."

"Well," I replied, "that is an honor, to be sure. Are they calling it the Ochiltree News?"

"Not exactly that," said Tom, "but substantially so. It is called the Truth."—Washington Star.

Lacked Atmosphere.

"I did hope for an artistic career," said the disappointed looking man, "but I met with difficulties I could not conquer. What I needed was atmosphere."

"I see! The same old trouble. What were you—an author or a painter?"

"Neither. I was learning to play the trombone, but I was naturally short of breath."—Chicago Record-Herald.
